

PACCOA Awards 2018

The PACCOA Awards are presented at the national conference. There are three awards – the Tony Hill Award for individuals, the John Augustus Award for organisations and the Life Member of PACCOA perpetual award for individual contributions to the Association. To nominate one of your colleagues or an organisation with which you work, please have a look at the details on the website at www.paccoainc.com

The Tony Hill Award (for individuals)

Tony Hill was a Queensland Probation and Parole Officer and was one of the founding members of PACCOA. His inspiration and determination led to a pathway for practitioners to build upon their capabilities and enhance their professional development opportunities and deliver cutting edge initiatives to the field.
